

Martina Grlić: Mindscapes

29 March–26 April 2023

MMC KIBLA / KiBela

We are pleased to invite you to the opening of the exhibition by Martina Grlić entitled Mindscapes, which will take place on Wednesday, 29 March 2023, at 7 p.m. in KiBela space for art.

Grlić's artworks reveal the uncertainty of memory and seek to question the learned ideologies involved in the formation of consciousness and identity – and their relationship to personal and political reality. As Valerie Mindlin writes in Artforum, for Grlić, »what's recollected is not only fleeting and an inevitable casualty of time's passing, but inherently contested as a remnant of Yugoslavia's transformation from the socialist state in which she was born to a network of European-style capitalist democracies, with the accompanying self-imposed erasure and reconstruction of the national past.« Thus, the artist's works, which are full of nostalgic imagery always surfacing and sinking with lurid appeal, become reflections of a public social attitude, tableaux of a series of fantasies, even portraits of naive superstitions that nevertheless persist in the contemporary cultural imagination.
