

Slađana Matić Trstenjak: Soft Fields

10 July–8 August 2026

artKIT

You are cordially invited to the opening of Soft Fields, a solo exhibition by Slađana Matić Trstenjak, which will take place on Friday, 10 July 2026, at 7 p.m. at the artKIT exhibition space.

In her artistic practice, Slađana Matić Trstenjak has established herself as an artist who extends painting beyond its traditional surface, positioning it instead as a field of perception, material memory, and chromatic thought.

The artist's works unfold as soft, membrane-like structures of color fields in which light, gaze, and meaning are reflected. The layering and interpenetration of these color fields are articulated through the principle of collage, giving rise to open compositions unbound by rigid order that evoke an Informel sensibility for spontaneous gesture, material texture, and the unconstrained organization of pictorial space.

Her art inhabits a space of gently restrained tension and silence, where the dynamic balance between contrast and harmony is suffused with an unusual, almost contemplative calm and grace, inviting the viewer into a slow, attentive, and deeply immersive experience.
