EVENTS IN SEVILLE

Theatre. Las Sonrisa Etrusca by Jose Luis Sampedro.

Of the 16 to May 20, will take place at the Teatro Lope de Vega, directed by José Carlos Plaza at 8:30 PM.

Music. Royal Symphony Orchestra of Seville.

17 and May 18 at the Teatro de la Maestranza.

Territorios Sevilla 2012. XV Festival internacional de música.

The fifteenth edition of Territorios Sevilla presents a risky proposition given the history of the Festival, which aims to avoid the crisis and the obstacles presented for an event of the size of this festival. The organization makes a strong bet on the public with the new format introduced last year like concentrating all the concerts in two days, the addition of a fourth scenario or a mixture of music styles that favored the creation of season ticket at an affordable price. Last year the public responded massively flatly doubling previous figures and reaching the 30,000 attendees. New in 2012 is that the two main stages will be located in the outdoor gardens of the Andalusian Centre of Contemporary Art.

Territorios Sevilla in 2012 remains the same structure that enabled the success of last year, with the goal of once again, provide great musical live moments.

Its 15th edition, will be held on 18th and 19th of May at the Monasterio de la Cartuja, venue of the Andalusian Centre of Contemporary Art., a special, historic, and central area of the city Territorios will delight its audience with the presence of more than 40 national and international artists of all styles.

Territorios Sevilla does a new economic effort in order to thank the fans for the great success of last year, and for this 15th edition the season ticket is on sale for the two-day festival at the price of 40 euros (plus booking fee) until 17th of May, and individual tickets for each day at 25 euros (plus booking fee) on sale in advance and 30 euros at the box office the day of the concert.

This fifteenth edition of Territorios Sevilla is well known as one of the music festivals with a longer career in the southern half of the peninsula.

Romics 2011 - Fiera di Roma

Romics, festival of comics, is coming round again at Fiera di Roma from September 29th to October 2nd 2011, this year on its eleventh edition. Romics brings together thousands of people keen on comics, games, videogames and cartoons. This important event features a number of international guests, several previews, and special exhibitions of the sector. Among the participants at Romics 2011 in Rome, are prestigious publishing houses, specialized bookshops, collectors, home video producers and distributors, as well as videogames companies. Many unmissable events throughout the 4 days of Romics festival: such as the Cosplay show, in which many youngs create and then wear their own costume resembling the one of their favourite character, with an amusing and original result all the times.

Flamenco-Tardes de Flamenco

The well-known stately home located in the Santa Cruz neighborhood, the Casa de la Memoria, select performances of traditional flamenco, with singing, dancing and guitar in charge of the best young artists from Seville. There are shows every day at 21:00 and sometimes 19:30 or 22:30, depending on the season. Specifically the Thursday 17 will be given a "Seguiriya" and Friday 18, a "Fragua Flamenco".
